

6.3 Anticipation Guide: Possible One-Sentence Themes

Text: Freedom Summer, by Deborah Wiles, illustrated by Jerome Lagarrigue

Before Reading		Possible One-Sentence Themes	After Reading
Agree	Disagree	Harmony among all people is an impossible dream.	Agree	Disagree
Agree	Disagree	People need laws in order to practice getting along with others from diverse cultures, ethnicities, and races.	Agree	Disagree
Agree	Disagree	People can make new laws, but laws can't make people get along.	Agree	Disagree
Agree	Disagree	When people interact, they learn to see each other's similarities and appreciate each other's differences.	Agree	Disagree
Agree	Disagree	Children are smarter than adults.	Agree	Disagree

After reading, compose an original theme or write one of your own based on Evidence + Background Knowledge = Inferred Theme.

Evidence in the Text	Your Background Knowledge
Inferred One-Sentence Theme	