Handwriting Analysis

Each person's handwriting is as unique as his fingerprints. The way you dot your i's, the way connect letters, how far up and down you write your letters. When you write something you're just thinking about writing, so it's really hard to disguise your handwriting. Below is a handwriting form forensic scientist's use for comparative analysis. Fill out the form and write your name on the back.

The London Letter

"Our London business is good, but Vienna and Berlin are quiet. Mr. D. Lloyd has gone to Switzerland and I hope for good news. He will be there for a week at 1496 Zermott St. and then goes to Turin and Rome and will join Col. Parry and arrive at Athens, Greece, Nov. 27th or Dec 2nd. Letters there should be addressed: King James Blvd. 3580. We expect Charles E. Fuller Tuesday. Dr. L. McQuaid and Robert. Unger, Esq., left on the 'Y.X.' Express tonight."
